

THE ARTIST | Hugh Hales-Tooke

Best known for international fashion photography in Vanity Fair, GQ, Details and The New York Times—especially work for designer Paul Smith, who praises him in the British Journal of Photography—Hugh's artistic training began with a painting degree from London.

12.1 TITLE | Multi-Panel Yellow

Sheep Print

The sheep print originated with a personal series of pictures of pedigree sheep made in the village owned by the North family in Norfolk England. The legendary Simon Doonan of Barney's New York commissioned mural sized prints for display in each window of the Seventh Avenue store.

12.1

